

Nancy Marinda

999-999-9999 • Atlanta, GA 30326 • nmarinda@gmail.com • linkedin.com/in/nmarinda

Accounting Student and Community Leader

TOOLS FOR TRANSITION SAMPLE RESUME

Committed to creating business and community results for things that have real impact. Takes initiative and ownership of programs and events that further the purpose of organizations. Loyal, serious, competitive, with natural leadership skills for creating motivated and engaged teams.

Likes accounting because it is what runs a business. Accounting information shows how well a company is doing, along with areas that need improvement. Solves numerical-based problems with definitive answers. Incorporates analysis of the problems to offer solutions and alternative possibilities. Long-term goals are to become CEO or CFO.

Education

Confidential State University, Atlanta • Bachelor of Science in Accounting, 3.8 GPA, expected completion May 2012

Accounting Experience

Confidential Sorority

Treasurer, 2011 – 2012

- Organized the first official budget for the university chapter, leading to the first debt-free year.
- Managed over $45,000 in collections for chapter operations per year.

Second place in the PricewaterhouseCoopers (PwC), xTAX Case Competition, 2012

- Developed a working Double-Irish strategy, which was presented to partners of E&Y, that saved a case study company $300 million in taxes.
-

Leadership and Recognition

Volunteer (Confidential Sorority) April 2012

- Constructed and managed the budget for annual fundraising event.
- Handled all cash inflows and outflows for the event that generated over $25,000 in revenues.

Affiliations

- Confidential Honors Society
- National Society of Collegiate Scholars

Honors and Awards

- Dean's List freshman and sophomore years
- Confidential sorority certificate of recognition for outstanding chapter operations
- Future Business Leaders of America (FBLA) National Competition
 - Tenth Place for Entrepreneurship
 - Third Place for Management Information Systems(MIS)
- FBLA State Competition
 - First Place for Entrepreneurship
 - Second Place for MIS